* [REDACTED] Comment. The airfield is still occupied by two ground attack regiments equipped with IL-10s. A total of 120 to 130 IL-10s are estimated in Doeberitz. The red tips on the rudder assemblies are characteristic of the ground attack regiments in Doeberitz.

 [REDACTED] Comment. The dispatch of billeting equipment is possibly connected with an exercise or the transfer of a ground attack regiment.

25X1A  [REDACTED] Comment. This information confirms a previous report which indicated the presence of a second ground attack regiment, the aircraft of which had red tips on their rudder assemblies and allegedly were static at the field.
